SAVING PLACES 2009

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Be a part of the largest statewide preservation conference in the nation!

Colorado Preservation, Inc.'s 12th annual historic preservation conference, Expanding Preservation Coalitions, will explore the vital role partnerships and coalitions play in the preservation process. The conference will also feature current historic preservation trends, technology, programs, and projects.

What's Happening in 2009?

In addition to 40 Educational Sessions, 4 Pre-Conference Workshops, 4 Tours, and General Sessions featuring local and national speakers, Saving Places 2009 will include:

- 2 PRE-CONFERENCE FORUMS: (1) Ski Town Forum and (2) Boards, Commissions, & Non-Profit Box Lunch Forum
- SILENT & LIVE AUCTION benefiting Colorado's Most Endangered Places Program
- SPECIAL HERITAGE TOURISM TRACK OF EDUCATIONAL SESSIONS
- AN EVENING IN DENVER: DINING IN HISTORIC SURROUNDINGS

Don't miss out on this great opportunity to learn, network, and expand historic preservation efforts!

Who should attend?

Preservationists, city and regional planners, architects, landscape architects, community leaders, Landmark Commissioners, historians, archaeologists, state and local officials, educators, students, historic property owners, Main Street coordinators, members of CLGs, developers, contractors, craftsmen, advocates of historic preservation, heritage travelers, involved citizens, and YOU!

Preservation Marketplace

Network and meet vendors during the largest tradeshow of preservation related products, programs, and services. Non-profit organizations and government agencies exhibit throughout the conference and commercial exhibitors will be featured at the Thursday evening reception.

AIA & APA Credits!

This conference is qualified to offer AIA/CES learning units and AICP Certification Maintenance Credits for all participating members.

Expanding Preservation Coalitions

SPEAKERS

Here are a few of the speakers in 2009:

Gov. Richard D. Lamm

Co-Director

Institute for Public Policy Studies, University of Denver

Former three-term Governor of Colorado

"Resilience and fortitude are required to preach hard choices to a profligate nation. But Governor Richard Lamm has been the dean of the school of hard choices for at least two decades." (Gary Hart)

David Carroll

Executive Director, Western Museum of Mining and Industry

David oversees a 47-acre site dedicated to preserving the rich mining history of Colorado and the American West, and has authored numerous studies on visitor behavior.

Barbara Pahl

Regional Director, Mountain/Plains Office

National Trust for Historic Preservation

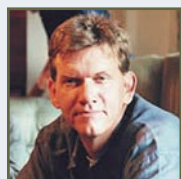

Since joining the Trust in 1984, Ms. Pahl has played a key role in the development of the Trust's BARN AGAIN! Program, the Heritage Tourism Program, the initiative to save historic neighborhood schools, the Public Lands Initiative and Explore Colorado which promotes heritage tourism in Colorado.

Joaquin Murietta, Ph.D.

Director, Mexico Program

Sonoran Institute

With National Geographic Society's Center for Sustainable Destinations, Joaquin has implemented community strategies to advance the concept of Geotourism.

Dr. Kenneth E. Foote

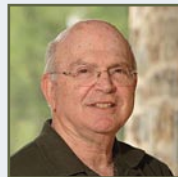

University of Colorado at Boulder
